BELVILLE – The neighboring towns of Belville and Leland are teaming up this year to tackle litter in their communities by participating in Big Sweep 2010. Groups from the two towns will meet on Saturday, October 2 at 8:30 a.m. in the parking lot of FedEx Freight at 10214 Blackwell Rd SE in Belville. Volunteers will then “sweep” Blackwell Road and a portion of Chapel Loop Road of roadside trash.

The towns are holding the Big Sweep in conjunction with the North Carolina Department of Transportation’s annual Litter Sweep and Keep Brunswick County Beautiful.

“It’s good to see volunteers from Leland and Belville working together on a common goal,” said Jack Batson, Mayor of Belville.

For more information on the Big Sweep and how you can volunteer, contact the Town of Belville at (910) 371-2456 or the Town of Leland at (910) 332-4818.
