4th Annual Belville Food Truck Rodeo

Saturday, June 20 | 11:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Foodies from across Brunswick County and beyond are invited to eat their way through the 4th Annual Belville Food Truck Rodeo. Featuring more than a dozen unique food trucks serving a variety of delicious cuisines, desserts, and specialty beverages, this event is fast becoming one of the most popular the park hosts.

New this year, attendees can participate in line dancing from 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM, hosted by Wilmington NC Line Dance. Guests 21 and older can enjoy the Beer & Cider Garden hosted by Brunswick Beer & Cider, while kids can take part in Cowboy Competitions and enjoy additional surprises throughout the day.

"The Food Truck Rodeo has become one of our most anticipated events each year," said Belville Mayor Chuck Bost. "It brings people together to enjoy great food, great entertainment, and the beautiful setting of the Belville Riverwalk."

Founders Day/250th Celebration

The celebration will feature live music from Cat-A-Tonic and Brunswick Big Band, along with a Kids Zone Play Area sponsored by FunTime Inflatables. Families can also enjoy face painting, balloon creations from Mr. Twister, and a variety of additional activities throughout the day.

Guests 21 and older can visit the Beer & Cider Garden hosted by Brunswick Beer & Cider, while everyone is invited to enjoy free birthday cake courtesy of Nothing Bundt Cakes.

"This Founders Day is an opportunity to celebrate our town's 49th and our nation's 250th, to recognize how far we've come, and look ahead to an exciting future as both a town and country," said Mayor Bost. "As Belville continues to grow, events like these help bring our community together and create lasting memories for residents and visitors alike."

Both events are free to attend and will take place at the Belville Riverwalk, one of Brunswick County's premier waterfront destinations.
